FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 18, 2007

GRAB A BLANKET AND ENJOY A MOVIE UNDER THE STARS County to Feature Free "Movies in the Park" Series; Entertainment for the Entire Family

The County Parks and Recreation Department will be launching its "Movies in the Park" series on June 21 and will feature nearly a dozen movies in community centers across the county.

"The goal is to provide more family-oriented events for all communities in San Diego," said Renée Bahl, Director of the Parks and Recreation Department.

This year's event kicks off in Fallbrook with the 2006 remake of "Charlotte's Web." The public can enjoy a variety of movies to suit all genres and tastes and the films will be shown in the communities of Julian, Lakeside, 4S Ranch and Spring Valley. The public is invited to bring a picnic, lawn chair and the entire family to enjoy a free movie under the stars.

The movie series include popular films such as "Night at the Museum," "Happy Feet," "ET," and "Raiders of the Lost Ark." Movies are shown in high-quality digital on a 10 x 18 foot inflatable screen and will begin at dusk. All movies are free and open to the public.

Healthy food and snacks will be available for purchase. Donations will be accepted to help various non-profit agencies. Families are encouraged to arrive at 7:30 p.m. For a list of schedules and times, please visit www.sdparks.org.
